

FILSERV Ltd Privacy Policy Statement

In accordance with current Data Protection Law and the General Data Protection Regulation (2018), FILSERV Ltd, will maintain the contact details of our customers and suppliers only in so far as is necessary to conduct our business.

Such details including name, business name, telephone number, postal and email addresses and bank details will be held on our secure computer system and will be used solely for conducting business with our customers and suppliers and will not be used in advertising or shared with any third party without prior consent of the customer or supplier whose details we hold.

Should you have any concerns about the information we hold or would like to update or remove your details from our system, please contact us via our website www.filserv.com or email filaments@filserv.com

24 May 2018